In Loving Memory of

Justin Bradley Lindley
(August 13, 1979 - July 16, 2008)

Don't see the exterior of society on us but see the light that shines in everyone of our souls.

Justin Lindley

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Justin Bradley Lindley who was born in Jonesboro, Arkansas on August 13, 1979 and passed away on July 16, 2008. You will live forever in our memories and always in our hearts.

Information about the site: Check back often as it will be a work in progress. Anytime you need to contact me there is a link to my e-mail at bottom of the page. Also you can register your e-mail to receive notification when the site is updated by clicking on the people icon in right menu bar. Please bear with the frequent postings from me(Mom). This is a way for me to fill a hole in my heart and give my grandchildren the gift of lasting memories of their Daddy!

Please sign the guestbook, light a candle or send us a memory. It brightens our day to hear Justin's name and know others are thinking of him.

Teresa-Justin's Mom

~♥~A very special THANK YOU to the many who remember Justin's birthday, angel anniversary, who light candles and send graphics. The last-memories family has become very special to me. The love and support I receive from you continue to help make this grief journey more bearable. Although we certainly wish we were not members of this horrible club I feel fortunate that we have found each other to carry us through it. Blessings and prayers to you all.

~♥~Teresa-Mom to Justin~♥~

Florida 2007

This is a photo redo of Justin and his children. His babies were the light of his life. One of the things he "did right" according to him. He often told me "Mom I make beautiful babies, don't I?" The answer is YES Justin and you were beautiful too! We LOVE YOU and MISS YOU so much My Baby!

Love you-Mom

Justin

If we had one lifetime wish,
One dream that could come true
We'd pray to God so hard
For yesterday and you.
They say memories are golden
Well, maybe that is true
But we never wanted memories,
We only wanted you.
If teardrops were a stairway
And heartaches a lane,
We'd walk a path to heaven
And bring you back again.
A thousand times we've needed you
A thousand times we cried.....
If love could have saved you,
You would have never died.
We love and miss you Justin

JUSTIN IS AT PEACE!

The image features two roses in a muted, earthy color palette, set against a textured, parchment-like background. The roses are positioned in the upper right quadrant, with one slightly larger and more open than the other. The overall aesthetic is soft and romantic.

The background of the image is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. The text is centered in the lower half of the image.

How we Survive

October 14, 2010

How We Survive

If we are fortunate,
we are given a warning.

If not,
there is only the sudden horror,
the wrench of being torn apart;
of being reminded that nothing is permanent,
not even the ones we love,
the ones our lives revolve around.

Life is a fragile affair.
We are all dancing
on the edge of a precipice, a dizzying cliff so high
we can't see the bottom.

One by one,
we lose those we love most into the dark ravine.

So we must cherish them without reservation.

Now.

Today.

This minute.

We will lose them
or they will lose us someday.

This is certain.

There is no time for bickering.

And their loss
will leave a great pit in our hearts;
a pit we struggle to avoid during the day
and fall into at night.

Some,
unable to accept this loss,
unable to determine the worth of life without them, jump into that black pit

spiritually or physically, hoping to find them there.

And some survive
the shock,
the denial,
the horror,
the bargaining,
the barren, empty aching,
the unanswered prayers,
the sleepless nights
when their breath is crushed under the weight of silence and all that it means.

Somehow, some survive all that and,
like a flower opening after a storm,
they slowly begin to remember the one they lost
in a different way...

The laughter,
the irrepressible spirit,
the generous heart,
the way their smile made them feel,
the encouragement they gave even as their own dreams were dying.

And in time, they fill the pit with other memories
the only memories that really matter.

We will still cry.
We will always cry.
But with loving reflection more than hopeless longing.

And that is how we survive.

That is how the story should end.
That is how they would want it to be.

Autumn leaves

Bright and vibrant

Warm sun and bright blue sky

Chilly breezes blow

Golden Leaves from Heaven fall

To ride the wind and swirl around

Colors of Beauty slowly come down

A symphony of Autumns Gifts sing

From God with Love to You and Me.

Heavenly Thoughts...

Times when we are burdened

when we feel so alone

Our spirit is just hurting
We need a place to roam.
Look up to the Heavens within the clouds you'll see
The portrait of an angel
God's gift for you and me.
His gentle touch will reach you
He's there for you today
The beauty overwhelming
the mist of sweet bouquet.
An angel sent from Heaven
Who rides the clouds above
God's special little angel perfection of his love.

Waiting for the moment
when you will call his name clouds that now surround him
they all will disappear
He's there to give you comfort to chase away the fears
To let you know God's beauty
His smile for you appears!

You maybe out of my sight,
but not out of my heart.

You maybe out of my reach,
but not out of my mind.

I'm always

LOVE YOU PATRICK.WE MISS YOU!

There is no word to describe my unthinkable loss, my great pain... Just like there is no word to define my appreciation about your touching thoughts, prayers and beautiful graphics sent on my precious son/Angel Patrick's Angel Day and on his Birthday.

I hope Patrick had celebrated his Angel Day and Birthday in Heaven with all our Angels and my other loved ones .

Yesterday was a very hard but touching day for me when I saw the Church and also the cemetery crowded with friends and families at my son Patrick's gravesite to pay their respect and honor his precious life. That was the best day for me since I lost my Patrick. People were happy of the beautiful tribute, memorable day I gave my son Patrick... it's only called LOVE FOR MY PATRICK!!!

My biggest fear is my precious Patrick to be forgotten.

My greatest joy is to remember my beautiful son Patrick, his precious life, and his beautiful memories.

Love never ends... And life continues beyond that sweet, wonderful love the moment God sent us that gift of love.

One by one, soul by soul we will bond that broken chain of love when our turn to go to Heaven arrives.

THANK YOU MY FAITHFUL FRIENDS!

Hugs from Heaven

When you feel a gentle breeze
Caress you when you sigh

It's a hug sent from Heaven
From a loved one way up high.

If a soft and tender raindrop
Lands upon your nose
They've added a small kiss
As fragile as a rose.

If a song you hear fills you
With a feeling of sweet love
From someone special up above.

If you awaken in the morning
To a bluebird's chirping song
It's music sent from Heaven
To cheer you all day long.

If tiny little snowflakes
Land upon your face
It's a hug sent from Heaven
Trimmed with Angel lace.

So keep the joy in your heart
If you're lonely my dear friend
Hugs that are sent from Heaven
A broken heart will mend.

My heart is with you and your family today and always. God Bless you and may you find some peace and comfort as Angel Dates are so, so hard. Big hugs and lots of love being sent your way.

Through our pain
Each other, we embrace

We all now meet
In this familiar place

Not ever knowing
Each other before
But through our children
That we adore

We light their candles to ease the hurt
Keeping them shining
With words of comfort

Whether writing a tribute
In the early a.m.
Or something as short
As "I'm thinking of them"

Being so thankful
For the prayers that are said
And feeling all the hugs through the words that are read.

The love that we send
And what it all means
How important it's become
From people unseen.

"A mother's love is special
It's present every day,
A gift that came from heaven

That God has sent our way.
Her job is never ending
She's there all day & night,
To be there for her children
And be their guiding light.
Her thoughts are with them always,
Even if they are apart,
Her children have a special place
Deep down inside her heart.
Mother's are a special gift~
A gift from up above,
This world would seem so empty,
Without a Mother's Love."

Dandelions from Heaven

Mothers day is coming And I wanted to send you a sign something you can tell others; "Is from an angel of mine
So I searched the heavens high and low for that perfect thing....
And low and behold I found it.... And a smile I hope it will bring.

So when you look to the heavens and see the yellow stars in the sky
Just think of me .... your angel... in the heavens way up high
And just imagine those stars; are dandelions up above.
Yes! Dandelions are also in heaven; which you know how much I love.

So on this mothers day and you awake and feel blue....
You will notice those yellow stars... are no longer in view.
So look to the meadows and the dandelions you see...

Are the ones I've tossed down this mothers day from me.

And when you find a dandelion that has turned from yellow to white;
You're supposed to make a wish and then blow with all your might.
For you will be blowing kisses to me in heaven above....
And I will be catching them and blowing them back sent with all my love.

Please know that I am with you.... on this mothers day....
And also in the days ahead.... God and I will never stray.
We will be with you in the morning ...when you awake and see the sun....
We will be with you when you say your prayers when the day is done.

For God and I will never be very far from your side....
For I can now be everywhere.... and God will be your guide.
So.... remember when you see dandelions it is your guarantee
That I am always close to you.... for dandelions are free to roam ....now just like me.

I will always be with you mom....
Happy Mothers Day....
Love your angel in heaven.

A Newborn's Conversation with God

A baby asked God, "They tell me you are sending me to earth tomorrow, but how am I going to live there being so small and helpless?"

God said, "Your angel will be waiting for you and will take care of you."

The child further inquired, "But tell me, here in heaven I don't have to do anything but sing and smile to be happy."

God said, "Your angel will sing for you and will also smile for you. And you will feel your angel's love and be very happy."

Again the small child asked, "And how am I going to be able to understand when people talk to me if I don't know the language?"

God said, "Your angel will tell you the most beautiful and sweet words you will ever hear, and with much patience and care, your angel will teach you how to speak."

"And what am I going to do when I want to talk to you?"

God said, "Your angel will place your hands together and will teach you how to pray."

"Who will protect me?"

God said, "Your angel will defend you even if it means risking its life."

"But I will always be sad because I will not see you anymore."

God said, "Your angel will always talk to you about Me and will teach you the way to come back to Me, even though I will always be next to you."

At that moment there was much peace in Heaven, but voices from Earth could be heard and the child hurriedly asked, "God, if I am to leave now, please tell me my angel's name."

God said, You will simply call her, "Mom."

Every cell in my body witnessed you saying goodbye

That final touch...
That final smile...
That final thought that spoke a million lines...
Lines of language without sound,
A language so much deeper than the mind!
You were there, to wipe my tears, to hold my hand, to calm my fears...
Through your eyes you showed me Love,
Love much deeper than the human heart,
From the heavens up above, like an Angel's touch,
from dimensions unrealized...
You followed the light,
You spread your wings without fear,
without grief,
and reached for the stars...your journey to the Eternal Self!
You always said: "Life is but a chase
of wind,
Be free from self-importance and self-esteem, experience the truth in every dream"
The chase is over,
As peace abide,
Remember me...
And as you whisper through the wind
I'll hear your voice in every dream!

Happy Easter

Cindy Mauntel
1982 - 2008

In the soft and dusky evening, Angels all around me fly...

I can see their wings of moonlight, I can hear the songs they sigh...

Through that troubles that assail me, in this place of tears and woe, may I feel their soft embraces with me everywhere I go.

Let me always 'see' my Angels...let me always 'feel' their love. Know that they are always with me, Heavens helpers from above.

In the evening of my sojourn, comes the time I must depart, may my Angels cluster closely, weaving peace around my heart.

In the soft and dusky evening, Angels all around me fly...

I can see their wings of moonlight, I can hear the songs they sigh...

"Are you there"....I whisper. No answer comes to stir the evening soft and fair.

"Are you there?".... I ask again. Silence spreads its balm on heavy summer air.

"You see I really need you!...need to know your really there....need to feel your comfort and compassion...for burdens much too heavy for me alone to bare"....

Again no answer.

Slowly and Sadly I rise, and run distracted fingers through my hair.

What's this?....a soft and downy feather, white as drifting snow and sparkling like frost in winters air!

Thank you! Oh thank you.....for answering my prayer

HAVE A BEAUTIFUL WEEKEND. ALL MY LOVE TO YOU AND YOUR BELOVED ANGEL.
XOXO

INEVITABLE REALITY

March 22, 2010

Inevitable Reality
by Liz Waller

The clouds move on, the earth turns grey;
The happiness I felt, has quickly gone away;
The whisper of the wind, seems to call my name;
I try to respond, but it seems I'm not the same;
Time elapses slowly, into the universe;
It's definitely not a pleasure, nor is it a curse;
Nothing seems to matter, no one seems to care;
I reached out to touch you, but you're not really there;
Everything I see, and everything I feel;
Sometimes seems like a dream, where nothing there is real;
I grasp onto reality, and try to play this game;
But every single thing, always remains the same;
The mist is finally fading, the truth is here to stay;
The illusions are finally passing, the lies have gone away;
But reason cannot save me, tears will not heal;
I've giving it some time, to see what will be revealed;
No one has the answers, no one holds the key;
I'm wishing for a miracle, that you'd belong to me;
Until then, I'm lost with my solitude;

Lost in this window, with no view.

ALL MY LOVE XOXO

March 22, 2010

Thank you so much for always remembering my Darko and lighting a candle for him. You have truly created a beautiful page for Justin in his memory. I can tell he was truly loved here and missed by so many. May God be with you as you continue on your journey here until it is time to join your angel. I am trying to understand why, nothing helping me. I am losing my mind, every day visiting cemetery. I am not opening Darko's or any other site for days, I still can't accept this. Thank you again for all your support.

THE MONARCH

March 19, 2010

The Monarch
Jessi Hersey

A single Monarch butterfly floats so-silent-soft to earth;
carried by the breeze
to land on my outstretched hand.

Gazing at the majestic painted wings,
I am consumed by memories:
of releasing Monarchs in remembrance of your free spirit,

and of the one butterfly
that would not leave, clinging to me.

"That's My Angel!"

Mom had said.

I blink, and no longer see the insect,
but your face, the angelic features that I have missed.

You smile at me,
warm brown eyes all aglow,
and I can't help but smile in return.

Looking up, I find myself not in my world,
but in yours:
a world of indescribable and unimaginable beauty.

Your small, warm hand grasps mine, pulling me down a path lined by glittering butterflies.

"Follow me!"

I do, and on the way we talk,
me of home,
and you of Heaven.

Being around you after all this time becomes too much, though,
and tears blur my vision, threatening to spill.

You smile up at me,

"Please don't cry"

and I see that you are near to tears yourself.

Always the protective one,
I manage to stay my tears
and throw my arms around your tiny frame.

"I thought I'd never see you again," my voice is barely a whisper.
You look me straight in the eye.
"I'll never leave you," you promise.
"Never!"

Looking farther down the path,
I spot a door of light,
shimmering gloriously ahead.

"What is that?" I ask you.
Smiling still, you reply:
"That is where I live,
where I must go."

And in a flash of light, you are through the door,
and I know I cannot cross with you.
I don't belong here.

All of a sudden, I'm back where I started,
the Monarch gracefully fluttering upward, circling my head before disappearing into the sky above.

"Why couldn't you just stay here?" I ask,
although I already know the answer.

You were not meant to live here on Earth,
just as I could not follow you into Heaven.

Remembering your promise, I smile to myself.
Some day, I will pass through that door,
but not today.

THANK YOU FOR ALL THE CANDLES, TRIBUTES AND PICTURES YOU LEAVE FOR MY ANGELS. IT MEANS SO MUCH TO ME. I DON'T KNOW WHERE I WOULD BE WITHOUT ALL YOUR LOVE AND SUPPORT. GOD BLESS YOU. HAVE A WONDERFUL WEEKEND. ALL MY LOVE GLORIA AND MY BEAUTIFUL ANGEL ANTHONY XOXO

I Have a Place in Heaven
I have a place in heaven
Please don't sing sad songs for me,
Forget your grief and fears,
For I am in a perfect place
Away from pain and tears.
It's far away from hunger
And hurt and want and pride,
I have a place in Heaven
With the Master at my side.
My life on earth was very good,
As earthly life can go,

But Paradise is so much more
Than anyone can know.
My heart is filled with happiness
And sweet rejoicing, too.
To walk with God is perfect peace,
A joy forever new.

I Want You To Know

***☞***

A brief moment of darkness was all that I knew,
before Heaven's Gate came into my view.

***☞***

Loved ones and friends
I had missed for many years, welcomed me with open arms
and many happy tears.

***☞***

All the hurt, fear and pain
that I have ever known,
is gone from my life,
I am finally home.

***☞***

I gazed upon the Lord's sweet smiling face,

and for the first time in my life
I knew and felt His grace.

I know that you miss me,
but please dry your eyes.

I will always be watching and loving you from my home in the sky.

*♡*

A cool breeze on your face,
a touch of light rain,
I will send as a reminder that we will be reunited again.

Life on earth is but one brief moment in time,
I am finally home,
Eternity is mine.

The sky is filled with Angels
With puffy lacy wings
The remnants of God's beauty
With treasures they now bring

Each one of them a Guardian
That travels in the sky
To watch throughout eternity
Their parents from on high

Smiles that come from Angels
They fall like crystal rain
Eases earthly burdens
Lifting all life's pain

Halos so astounding
That glitter gold each day
Following their loved ones
In such a perfect way

Wings in gentle breezes
That fall from up above

Kissing every parent
With everlasting love

Angels soar through heaven
With everlasting light
Looking down from heaven
Saying their "goodnights"

Kissing all who loved them
So gently on the face
This life's tender mercy
Each parent can embrace

Wings and shiny halos
Travel from on high
Surrounding all their loved ones
They never say good-bye.

I have been reading about justin and his life.He was only here a short time.God has him in his arms now.I know your pain,it never goes away.The only hope we have is to know we will see our sons in heaven someday.i believe that with all my heart.I used to question how god could take my son so soon,but somehow i was comforted and felt his grace and knew it was for a reason.He wanted him as his precious angel and i know he took justin for the same reasons.It hurts so bad ,i know. Hopefully with time it will get easier for you and your family.Just remember him and all the love he gave...then smile and know he is with you every single day.!

I am so touched for joining this memorial website, for it helps me carry through my lonely, painful journey. Life is so depressing without Patrick. Thank you again from the bottom of my heart for the condolences, the candles... Mostly for thinking of my loving son Patrick.

I am reading a book called "Mathew, tell me about Heaven" to understand my loss and perhaps get a glimpse of hope, faith. Have you read it? Losing a child is the ultimate pain to endure. What is this new life? I am helpless!

WHERE YOUR HEART BELONGS

February 25, 2010

Where Your Heart Belongs

□ Sara A. Wert

It starts when they're firstborn
Your heart in the palm of their hand
They're so very, very helpless
So you vow to do all that you can

You change them and feed them
You walk them, bounce them and cuddle
And with that first little smile

Your heart melts into a puddle

You cherish their looks and coos
You think you couldn't love them more
Then they lay a little hand on your face
And you know of love's neverending store

You watch them learn to coordinate
With their little tongue, hands and feet
Every day they bring such joy
Your life is now so complete

They learn to laugh out loud
They squeal and they grab and they pinch
You feel so proud when they roll over
And ecstatic if they scoot an inch

In just a few short months
Of singing funny, lullaby songs
There's just no way you can deny
With them is where your heart belongs

FOREVER LOVED

FOREVER MISSED

BUT GOD HAS OTHER PLANS FOR US

February 21, 2010

But God Has Other Plans For Us
Lupe Lopez

From the first day that you came into my world,
I'll never forget how I held you close to my heart in a little curl.
I could still remember all your growing years,
There were many good ones, and yes there were the tears.
How I long to hold you close again,
I never wanted this to end.
If I would have known it was your time to go,
I would have asked God and pleaded to take my soul.
"But God had other plans for us."

You're gentle heart and kind words,
And I still remember that you liked to eat sweet and sour nerds.
You were loving and you were funny,
And when you scared me I had you running.
But there were times I waited behind the door to scare you,
And you always threatened that you would get me too.
And now I sit here alone,
Wondering if I would have left first, what would you have done?
I know my son you loved me,
And oh how I miss you but this isn't how it was supposed to be.
"But God had other plans for us."

Since you left, there's not one day that goes by that you're not in my mind,
I talk to you often, greet you in the morning, and how I long to tuck you in bed at night.
In front of family and friends, I put on my happy face,
But when I'm alone, the tears just pour and pour I feel them as they race.
When people tell me that I am strong,
I think, are they kidding me pretending as if there is nothing wrong?
I would never want anybody to go through this I ponder,
But this is my sadness, nobody will hear my thunder
I try to understand how could that be,
But why did this have to happen to me?
I still question God and ask Him why he took you away,
But you were here for a while He say's that's why you couldn't stay.
I think I was left here alone for a reason.
I'm still trying to figure out why, after each season?
"But God had other plans for us."

I have held you in my arms and done the best I can,
I pray that God will hold you close knowing that you were
My number one young man.
Just remember in my heart you are a special one,
and I will always proudly tell the world, "that you were my son."
Each and every day, I feel my heart that aches,

And that's pretty much each morning as to how I wake.

"But God had other plans for us."

I try to keep a happy heart and remember all the funny things you did,
Like when you made me laugh or told me something funny that you made my face so red.
There are tons and tons of great memories I'll keep close to my heart,
I'm told that being sad is how you wouldn't want me, nor to lose it or to fall apart.
But why so soon, I keep asking why,
God only knew that it was your time.
"But God had other plans for us."

For now my son it's till we meet again,
I will do all the right things so that in Heaven I'll be welcomed in.
I know I cry and cry each day,
But please forgive me Son if I cause you any pain.
And when it's my time to leave this world,
And everyone will say she's gone,
I know my son you'll be there waiting for me to say welcome home mom.
"And that's the plan that God has for us"

I love you my son, my Justin.
I miss you dearly,
Love Mom

February 2, 2010

Compassionate Friends - by Steven L Channing

I can tell by that look, Friend, that you need to talk,
So come take my hand, and let's go for a walk.
See, I'm not like the others; I won't shy away,
Because I want to hear what you've got to say.

Your child has died, and you need to be heard,
But they don't want to hear a single word.
They tell you your child's "with God," so be strong.
They say all the "right" things, that somehow sound wrong.

They're just hurting for you and trying to say
They'd give anything to help take your pain away.
But they're struggling with feelings they can't understand,
So forgive them for not offering a hand.

I'll walk in your shoes for more than a mile.
I'll wait while you cry, and be glad if you smile.
I won't criticize you or judge you or scorn,
I'll just stay and listen 'til your night turns to morn.

Yes, the journey is hard and unbearably long,
And I know that you think that you're not quite that strong.
So take my hand 'cause I've got time to spare,
And I know how it hurts, Friend, for I have been there.

See, I owe a debt you can help me repay
For not long ago, I was helped the same way.
And I stumbled and fell thru a world so unreal,
So believe me when I say that I know how you feel.

I don't look for praise or financial gain
And I'm sure not the kind who gets joy out of pain.
I'm just a strong shoulder who will be there 'til the end.
Someone who will be your Compassionate Friend.

TO THOSE I LOVE

January 27, 2010

FROM JUSTIN WITH LOVE.

TO THOSE I LOVE

To those I love,

Since we parted, you have been sharing so much of ME with those around you. The memories are so fresh and real. You hold on to me so tightly in your hearts - where I shall always be.

Your concern has always been for me, but I wonder how you are doing. You will never know all of the prayers that have been prayed for you, the tears that have been shed over your grief and the concern that has been shown for you in a multitude of ways, but I find it so comforting to know you haven't been left alone.

Please know that I am not alone, either. The death that hurt you the most has given me the gift of eternal life. God's promises have been fulfilled in me. When I left you, God was there, waiting, just as He promised. I am surrounded by perfect love. Never let anyone tell you God doesn't exist. If you need to be mad at Him for awhile, that's okay; He can handle it. But never let hate, anger or bitterness fuel your emotions. Talk to Him and let him talk to you. Listen for Him in the voices of the people who love and care about you.

It is comforting to know that you hold me so close while struggling with the prospect of letting me go. You need to know that we will always be together. Eternity is not 'out there,' eternity is now! I have simply moved a little farther ahead of you.

Remember that God never wastes anything - especially love. The love that we shared on earth will be even greater in Heaven. For now, you must rest assured that I am safe in God's perfect love. I would like you to take some of the love you have for me and share it with those around you. You can never run out of love - the more you give away, the more you will have. And let others love you . you are worth loving.

Life is forever....mine has changed in the twinkling of an eye while yours is changing day-by-day and minute-by-minute. Though your lives will never be the same, that does not mean that they cannot be filled with peace, joy and love. Always look to the future. Don't be afraid of tomorrow - God's already there.... Be patient with yourselves. You will make some mistakes, and you will even find yourselves not thinking about 'me' from time to time. That's all right too.... All of my needs are being met; you need to take care of you. Hold onto one another, help each other, give hope and love to all you meet.

Above all, be prepared to welcome others into your world of grief and mourning. You are being taught valuable lessons that will need to be passed along. Some will not have your strength, many will not have your faith, and most will feel they are all alone; but all will need the love and understanding only you will be able to give. Now, your pain is the only credential you need to minister to others. When you think of me, never think of me as being alone. Think of me as smiling, laughing and enjoying all that God has prepared for me.

Finally, never believe you are alone. Do not focus on what you have lost, but look always at what you have left. You are surrounded by people who love you and care about you. Live with them, love with them, share with them and laugh with them. Make every day a celebration of life - a life that will never end. We will meet again, and until we do, know that I am very proud of you for never giving up.
I love you!

ARE YOU THERE?

January 25, 2010

Are You There?
by Diane Robertson

Misty breeze wraps about my shoulders, thinly clad.
I shiver not, despite the coolness on my skin.
Comfort, I now feel.
Is it you my precious Angel?

Are you there? I cannot hear your quiet voice,
But bird song fills the air From high treetops to grassy marsh.
I wonder – is it you, Dear? Are you there?

The roses in your garden bloom large,
And varied in hue from crimson deep, to barely pink.
I cup the velvet bud, its fragrance soothes a troubled mind.
This must be you, my precious Angel. Are you there?

Are you the fiery autumn maples,
Or the star-like flakes of snow?
Are you the sparkle in the water of the lake that we both loved,
Or, perhaps, the warmth I feel in the sand beneath my toes?

Though your quiet voice I cannot hear,
Nor can I see again your sparkling eyes,
Or feel your dainty hand laid gently on my own,
You are here.

For memory's book will never close –
Each lovely sound, or sight, or scent,
Another page from special times that we have shared.
Oh, yes! You are here child – everywhere!

ALL MY LOVE XOXO

SWEET DREAMS

January 20, 2010

SWEET DREAMS

Sweet dreams are all I have of you, they're all you left behind.

Those cherished lovely memories, never again to find.

On earth you were so wonderful, no child could I compare

To all the love you gave to me, you were so meek, so rare.

Sweet dreams they keep me going through the long and lonely night,

How I wish that I could hug you here and squeeze you oh so tight.

If I could walk to Heaven dear, to see you every day,

Just know I'd never want to leave, I know I'd long to stay.

We parted here on earth my child, but God's will shall be done,

Then dreams will be reality for once more we'll be one.

I love you for eternity, forever and some more,

Because you were the sweetest child, the kindest and most pure.

If Heaven's full of Angels, like you were here on earth,

I thank the Lord for lending you, for giving me your birth,

One day my child I'll see you there, so please look out for me,

You'll see my smile so wide before you see my spirit free.

God takes the sweetest Angels first, this we know is true,

For He came here and looked around, my darling, He chose you!

WHAT A GRIEVING MOTHER REALLY THINKS

January 17, 2010

What a Grieving
Mother Really Thinks

Hello old friend,
Oh yes you know

I lost my child a while ago.

No, no please don't look away
And change the subject, It's OK.
You see at first I couldn't feel,
It took so long, but now it's real.

I hurt so much inside you see
I need to talk, come sit with me
You see, I was numb for so very long,
And people said, "My, She is so strong."

They did not know I couldn't feel,
My broken heart made all unreal.
But then one day, as I awoke
I clutched my chest began to choke,

Such a scream, such a wail,
Broke from me.. My child! My child!
The horror of reality.
But everyones moved on, you see,
everyone except for me.

Now, when I need friends most of all,
Between us there now stands a wall.
My pain is more than they can bear,
When I mention my child, I see their blank stare.

"But I thought you were over it,"
Their eyes seem to say,
No, no, I can't listen to this, not today.
So I smile and pretend, and say,
"Oh, I'm OK"

But inside I am crying, as I turn away.
And so my old friend, I shall paint on a smile,
As I have from the start,
You never knowing all the while,
All I've just said to you in my heart.

BEREAVED PARENTS WISH LIST

January 16, 2010

Bereaved Parents Wish List

I wish my child hadn't died. I wish I had him back!!

I wish you wouldn't be afraid to speak my child's name. My child lived and was very important to me. I need to hear that he was important to you also.

If I cry and get emotional when you talk about my child, I wish you knew that it isn't because you have hurt me. My child's death is the cause of my tears. You have talked about my child and you have allowed me to share my grief. I thank you for both.

Being a bereaved parent is not contagious, so I wish you wouldn't shy away from me. I need you now more than ever.

I need diversions, so I do want to hear about you, but I also want you to hear about me. I might be sad and I might cry, but I wish you would let me talk about my child; my favorite topic of the day.

I know that you think of and pray for me often. I also know that my child's death pains you too. I wish you would let me know these things through a phone call, a card or note, or a real big hug.

I wish you wouldn't expect my grief to be over. These first years are traumatic for me, but I wish you could understand that my grief will never be over. I will suffer the death of my child until the day I die.

I am working hard in my recovery, but I wish you could understand that I will never fully recover. I will always miss my child and I will always grieve that they are gone.

I wish you wouldn't expect me "not to think about it" or "be happy". Neither will happen for a very long time, so don't frustrate yourself.

I don't want to have a "Pity party", but I do wish you would let me grieve. I must hurt before I can heal.

I wish you understood how my life has shattered. I know it is miserable for you to be around me when I'm feeling miserable. Please be as patient with me as I am with you.

When I say, "I'm doing okay", I wish you could understand that I don't "feel" okay and that I struggle daily.

I wish you knew that all of the grief reactions I'm having are very normal. Depression, anger, hopelessness and overwhelming sadness are all to be expected. So please excuse me when I'm quiet and withdrawn or irritable and cranky.

Your advice to "take it one day at a time" is excellent advice.

However, a day is too much and too fast for me right now. I wish you could understand that I'm doing good to handle an hour at a time.

Please excuse me if I seem rude, certainly not my intent. Sometimes the world around me goes too fast and I need to get off. When I walk away, I wish you would let me find a quiet place to spend time alone.

I wish you understood that grief changes people. When my child died, a big part of me died with him. I am not the same person I was before my child died and I will never be that person again.

I wish very much that you could understand ~ understand my loss and my grief.

But....

I pray daily that you will never understand

ALL MY LOVE XOXO

Remembering

Go ahead and mention my loved one,
The one that died, you know.
Don't worry about hurting me further.
The depth of my pain doesn't show.

Don't worry about making me cry
I'm already crying inside.
Help me to heal by releasing
The tears that I try to hide.

I'm hurt when you just keep silent,
Pretending they didn't exist,
I'd rather you mention my loved one
Knowing that they have been missed.

You asked me how I was doing
I say "pretty good" or "fine"
But healing is something ongoing
I feel it will take a lifetime.

YOU AND ME

January 15, 2010

You and Me
by: Kathryn O.

Who will I turn to now that your gone?

Who will comfort me when my day has been long?
Without you here, how will I get by?
All I can do is cry and cry

My friends are afraid of what I might do
They know I'd do anything to be with you
While in my mind that seems the best choice
I pray for guidance, then I hear your voice

We will be together at some point in time
For the love that we share is a love that binds
It will stand the test of the now and forever
To start again on new endeavors

Dry your tears, I hate to see you cry
Be brave and strong and you'll get by
You will get through this, just wait and see
Before you know it, it will again be you and me

THIS DAY WILL BE A CELEBRATION

January 12, 2010

This day will be a celebration
of the short time you were here.
You will always be remembered with great love and many tears.
But to only feel pain and sorrow
would not be fair to you.
Your life meant so much more to us,
more than words could say.

You were here so briefly,
I wonder if you knew all the ways you've touched our world and our hearts and everyone who knew you since the day God called you home.
Now my child, you're an angel
with your heavenly Father above, we see not only what we've lost
but our capacity of love.
There will always be a big void in our life and a hole in our hearts that will never heal.
Our souls will grieve forever.
Will we forget or stop loving you?
No! Not now...not ever.
As this day is upon us,
oh, how our hearts still hurt.
But even as I mourn your death,
we will always celebrate your birth.
It was the happiest day of our lives.

January 12, 2010

Directions to my new home in Heaven....

Make a Right onto Believeth Blvd.

Keep straight and go through the green light, which is Jesus Christ. There, you must turn onto the bridge of Faith, which is over troubled water. When you get off the bridge, make a right turn and keep straight. You are on The King's highway ~ Heaven-bound. Keep going for three miles: One for the Father, One for the Son, and One for the Holy Ghost. Then exit off onto Grace Blvd. From there, make a right onto Gospel Lane. Keep straight and then make another right on Prayer Road. As you go on your way, Yield not to the traffic on Temptation Ave. Also, avoid Sin Street because it is a Dead End! Pass up Envy Drive, and Hate Avenue. Also, pass Hypocrisy Street, Gossiping Lane, and Backbiting Blvd. However, you have to go down Long~suffering Lane, Persecution Blvd., And Trials and Tribulations Ave. But, that's all right because Victory Street is straight ahead.....Which brings you to the gates of Heaven!

Comfort

January 3, 2010

Winter is the time for comfort, for good food and warmth, for the touch of a friendly hand and for a talk beside the fire: it is the time for home.

Spring is when you feel like whistling even with a shoe full of slush.

Summer is the time when one sheds one's tensions with one's clothes, and the right kind of day is jeweled balm for the battered spirit.

Autumn is a second spring when every leaf's a flower.

The seasons are what a symphony ought to be: four perfect movements in harmony with each other.

May this new year bring you seasons full of happiness!

My Child

I loved you for so many months
Before you were even born,
I talked and sang and read to you
And kept you safe and warm.

And when you opened first your eyes
And looked deeply into my soul,
My heart grew full, and with great relief,
I saw that you were whole.

Your tiny little bitsy fist,
Wrapped tight around my thumb,
The trust you placed upon me,
Struck me completely dumb.

How awesome was your little smile
That spoke of your dreams to me,
So trusting as you slowly nursed,
So dependant, relaxed and free.

Committed I myself to you,
As protector, friend and guide,
And watched you grow, a tender shoot,
Close ever by my side.

How shocked was I when the death angel came
And bore you to heaven's home,
To fill a spot in God's own heart,
And with Jesus talk and roam.

Please know, my child, how my heart breaks
That you have gone away;
Yet the love you opened up to me
Will last through judgment day.

Amid my grief my life goes on;
I learned so much from you:
How to trust my Heavenly Father
In everything I do.

Some great day when my life is done,
According to God's plan;
I'll bring my broken heart to you
And it will be whole again.

I thank my Lord for lending you,
In the way He did, to me.
For He used you as a building block
To my own eternity.

They say that time will heal
But neither time nor reason
Will change the way we feel.

For no one knows the heartache

No one knows how many times
we have broken down and cried.

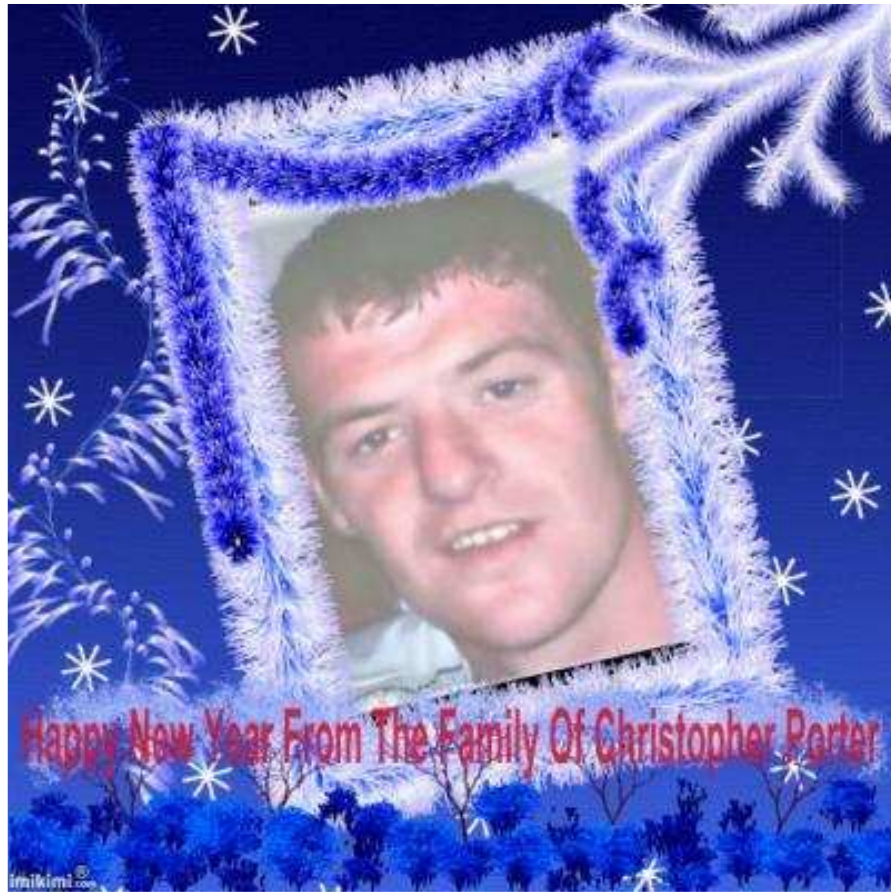

We want to tell you something

You're so wonderful to think of

I'M SPENDING CHRISTMAS WITH JESUS CHRIST THIS YEAR

I see the countless Christmas trees around the world below;
With tiny lights like Heaven's stars reflecting on the snow.

The sight is so spectacular
please wipe away that tear;
For I am spending Christmas
with Jesus Christ this year.

I hear the many Christmas songs
that people hold so dear;
But the sounds of music can't compare with the Christmas choir up here.

For I have no words to tell you the joy their voices bring;
It is beyond description
to hear the angels sing.

I know how much you miss me,
but please remember dear,
That I am spending Christmas
with Jesus Christ this year.

I cannot tell you of the splendour of the peace inside this place;

Can you just imagine Christmas with Our Saviour, face to face?

I will ask Him to light your spirit
as I tell Him of your love;
So pray for one another as you lift your eyes above.

Please let your hearts be joyful
and let your spirit sing;
For I am spending Christmas in Heaven
And walking with the King !

Merry Christmas to you

December 13, 2009

I have a list of people I know
All written in a book
And every year at Christmastime
I go and take a look
And that is when I realise
That those names are a part
Not of the book they're written in
But of my very heart
For each name stands for someone
Who has crossed my path some time
And in that meeting they've become
A treasured friend of mine
And once you've met some people
The years can not erase
The memory of a pleasant word
Or a friendly face

So when I send a Christmas card
That is addressed to you
It's because you're on that list
Of folk I'm indebted to
And you are one of many folk who
In times past I've met
And happen to be one of those
I don't want to forget
And whether I have known you for Many years or few
In some way you have a part in Shaping things I do
This, the spirit of Christmas, that Forever and ever endures
May it leave it richest blessing
In the hearts of you and yours.

Have yourself a very Merry Christmas!

Love, Hugs & Kisses!!

Merry Christmas

December 8, 2009

Somewhere across the winter world tonight
You will be hearing chimes that fill the air;
Christmas extends its all-enfolding light
Across the distance...something we can share.

You will be singing, just the same as I,
These familiar songs we know so well,

And you will see these same stars in your sky
And wish upon that brightest one that fell.

I shall remember you and trim my tree,
One shining star upon the topmost bough;
I will hang wreaths of faith that all may see --
Tonight I glimpse beyond the hear and now.

And all the time that we must be apart

I keep a candle in my HEART.

December 1, 2009

thanks so much for the beautiful thanksgiving poem. It was so hard this year for me and all my family. I lost my sister in june and then my son in august, my husband is currently battling pancreatic cancer. I come to my sons website and read all the nice poems and look at all the other angels that are in heaven with my loved ones, I dont think we'd be able to cope with all this alone, we really do need each other and each others prayers to reach out to GOD and understand that our loved ones are in GODS loving arms and we will all be reunited with them some day. God loves us all and may he help us with this terrible pain that lives on in our hearts as we remember our loved ones and miss so much.

A Thanksgiving Day Prayer

*Lord, so often times, as any other day
When we sit down to our meal and pray*

*We hurry along and make fast the blessing
Thanks, amen. Now please pass the dressing*

*We're slaves to the olfactory overload
We must rush our prayer before the food gets cold.*

*But Lord, I'd like to take a few minute more
To really give thanks to what I'm thankful for*

*For my family, my health, a nice soft bed
My friends, my freedom, a roof over my head*

I'm thankful right now to be surrounded by those Whose lives touch me more than they'll ever possibly know

Thankful Lord, that You've blessed me beyond measure Thankful that in my heart lives life's greatest treasure

*That You, dear Jesus, reside in that place
And I'm ever so grateful for Your unending grace.*

~Amen~

~Happy Thanksgiving sweet Angels in Heaven~

Dear Teresa Thank You for continuing to light candles for Nicky while I am recovering. Please keep me in prayer as I was told my right leg is dying and they may have to amputate below my right knee. I had 4 stents put in last week and I remain hopeful. God is good and I feel no news is as bad as the news that my son was dead. I know you know what I mean. I regret not being able to light candles like I used to due to the pain I am in. Pain pills are truly wonderful, so if I misspell any words you'll know why. Hey Justin I miss all our angels, know that I think of all of you daily and your precious families. Love and God Bless and tell Nicky not to worry

Thank you so much for always remembering my Ian and lighting a candle for him. You have truly created a beautiful page for him and in his memory. I'm so sorry you lost him physically so soon. I can tell he was truly loved here and by many. I'm certain he's singing with the angels. May God be with you as you continue on your journey here until it is time to be with him again. I truly understand.

If We Could Bring You Back Again

If we could bring you back again,
For one more hour or day,
We'd express all our unspoken love;
We'd have countless things to say.

If we could bring you back again,
We'd say we treasured you,
And that your presence in our lives
Meant more than we ever knew.

If we could bring you back again,
To tell you what we should,
You'd know how much we miss you now,
And if we could, we would.

Light a Candle
by Paul Alexander

And I will light a candle for you.
To shatter all the darkness and bless the times we knew.
Like a beacon in the night
The flame will burn bright and guide us on our way.
Oh, today I light a candle for you.

The seasons come and go, and I'm weary from the change.
I keep on moving on, you know it's not the same.

And when I'm walking all alone
Do you hear me call your name?
Do you hear me sing the songs we used to sing?

You filled my life with wonder, touched me with surprise,
Always saw that something special deep within your eyes.
And through the good times and the bad,
We carried on with pride.
I hold onto the love and life we knew.

And I will light a candle for you.
To shatter all the darkness and bless the times we knew.
Like a beacon in the night
The flame will burn bright and guide us on our way.
Oh, today I light a candle for you.

A Hug From God

Sometimes I think I've got it all together-
I've figured out what life is all about.
It lasts a while and then it always happens-
A curve-ball come that I can't figure out.

I struggle to find my way through all the darkness-
the more I try the harder it seems to be.
Until I reach a point of fear and desperation-
It hurts so much I fall down on my knees.

A hug from God will ease a broken heart.
A hug from God will fill your life with love.
A hug from God who is your loving father-
is always there- just look to him and pray.
Oh, God please send your loving hug my way.

The room grows quiet as tears stream down my face-
the pain inside is all taken away.
A warmth surrounds my cold and shaking body-
As God's hand wipes the tears off of my face.

A hug from God will ease a broken heart.
A hug from God will fill your life with love.
A hug from God who is your loving father-
is always there- just look to him and pray.
Oh, God please send your loving hug my way.

Angel Moms

We have shared our tears and our sorrow,
We have given encouragement to each other,
Given hope for a brighter tomorrow,
We share the title of grieving mother.

Some of us lost older daughters or sons,
Who we watched grow over the years,
Some have lost their babies before their lives begun,
But no matter the age , we cry the same tears.

We understand each others pain,
The bond we share is very strong,
With each other there is no need to explain,
The path we walk is hard and long.

Our children brought us together,
They didn't want us on this journey alone,
They knew we needed each other,
To survive the pain of them being gone.

So take my hand my friend,
We may stumble and fall along the way,
But we'll get up and try again,
Because together we can make it day by day.

We can give each other hope,
We'll create a place where we belong,
Together we will find ways to cope,
Because we are Angel Moms and together we are strong!

A wish for you
A dream is a wish your heart makes and my heart makes a wish for you
That you may find a rainbow
where all your dreams will come true.

May there be sunlight ever streaming into your heart each day,
May you find the hand of friendship
along each new highway.

And may loving arms enfold you when you need someone to care.

And may your heart know that my heart is with you everywhere....

Teresa, you, your family and your precious Justin are always in my prayers. ❤️

Peace of heart will come when you hardly notice, like the first star in the evening sky...
you need not strive for it or seek it...
it will find you as surely as light dawns,
as purely as water bubbles from a mountain spring...

Time goes by, and peace of heart tiptoes softly into your days and whispers in the night--

Be still...
All will be well.

August 24, 2009

This morning when I awoke and saw the sun above,
I softly said, 'Good morning, Lord, Bless everyone I love'
Right away I thought of you and said a loving prayer,
That He would bless you specially, and keep you free from care.
I thought of all the happiness a day could hold in store,
I wished it all for you because no one deserves it more.
I felt so warm and good inside, my heart was all aglow.
I know God heard my prayers for you,
He hears them all, you know.

Son

You've only walked on ahead of me
And I've got to understand
You must release the ones you love
And let go of their hand

I try and cope the best i can
But I'm missing you so much
If i could only see you
And once more feel your touch

Yes you've just walked on ahead of me
Don't worry I'll be fine
But now and then, I swear i feel
Your hand slip into Mine.

I hope you got through Justin's birthday with some peace, I was thinking of you and your family and Justin with love in my heart. August 13, 2009

Dear Mommy,
Mommy did you think of me today?
Mommy did you cry?
Mommy I know that it is hard for you
And you can't understand why
Mommy Please don't be angry with God
It was time for me to leave
I know that there are questions
And answers you can't believe
But know mommy that I'm okay
And never left your side
Do you hear the things I say?
Can you find the things I hide?
The only thing I cannot take away
Is the pain that your heart feels
So I asked the Lord for just one wish
To help your heart to heal
He told me to think carefully
About what I could say or do
To show you what you mean to me
And that I miss you too
I thought of all the little things
That used to make us laugh
I thought of all the prayers you have
Just to bring me back
I knew just what my wish would be
I was there in front of me

A beautiful Dove God gave to me
To show me of his love
I whispered to the dove where he was to go
I told him how to find you
And placed him on a rainbow
So mommy when you now think of me
And cannot bare the pain
Look for the gift I send to you
And my memory will remain
I am in every laugh you have
In every hug you share
I am the one who knows your soul
And want you mommy to let go
Take with you the memories
Of the life you made
And remember I never meant to Cause you so much pain
So when you need to feel my touch
Or know that I'm still there
Find the gift I sent from above
Feel in it all of my love
When you see a feather on the ground
Know that I am still around.

Birthdays In Heaven

Birthdays in heaven are a wonderful site
Where generations of family once again unite.
Nothing on earth can ever compare to the sounds of the angels singing "Happy Birthday My Dear!"

We gather together with our family and friends

And circle the world with love once again.

We know that you miss us and we want you to know that birthdays up here are not much different than below.

For we have cake with candles and one wish we always make
That your heart will know love and will never again ache.

So tonight go outside and count the stars in the sky for as I blow out my candles they will flicker up high.

And as this is happening you'll know deep in your heart
That Heaven and Earth aren't really that far apart!

Happy 30th

Life is like a garden
And friendship like a flower,
That blooms and grows in beauty
With the sunshine and the shower.

And lovely are the blossoms
That are tended with great care,
By those who work unselfishly
To make the place more fair.

And, like the garden blossoms,
Friendship's flower grows more sweet
When watched and tended carefully
By those we know and meet.

And, if the seed of friendship
Is planted deep and true
And watched with understanding,
Friendship's flower will bloom for you.

Memory Can Tell Us Only What We Were
By Richard Fife

Memory can tell us only what we were,
In company with those we loved;
It cannot help us find out what each of us,
Alone, must now become.
Yet, no person is really alone;
Those who live no more still echo
Within our thoughts and words,
And what they did has become
Woven into what we are.

I thought I saw your face today,
in the sparkle of the morning sun.
And then I heard the angel say,
"Their work on earth is done."

I thought I heard your voice today,
then laugh your hearty laugh.
And then I heard the angel say,
"There's peace dear one at last."

I thought I felt your touch today, in the breeze that rustled by.
And then I heard the angel say,
"The spirit never dies."

I thought I saw my broken heart,
in the crescent of the moon.
And then I heard the angel say,
"The Lord is coming soon."

I thought that you had left me,
for the stars so far above.
And then I heard the angel say,
"They left you with their love."

I thought that I would miss you so,
and never find my way.
And then I heard the angel say,
"They're with you every day."
"The sun, the wind, the moon, the stars,
will forever be around,
reminding you of the love you shared,
and the peace they've finally found.

God Bless You

I seek in prayerful words, dear friend,
My heart's true wish to send you,
That you may know, that far or near,
My loving thoughts attend you.

I cannot find a truer word,
Nor better to address you;
Nor song, nor poem have I heard,
Is sweeter than God bless you!

God bless you! So I've wished you all
Of brightness life possesses;
For can there any joy at all
Be yours unless God blesses?

God bless you! So I breathe a charm
Lest grief's dark night oppress you,
For how can sorrow bring you harm
If 'tis God's way to bless you?

And so, "through all thy days
May shadows touch thee never - "
But this alone - God bless thee -
Then art thou safe forever.

To All Parents

Written By: Edgar A. Guest
(from "All In a Lifetime"--Copyright, 1938)

"I'll lend you for a little time a child of Mine," He said,
"For you to love the while he lives and mourn for when he's dead,
It may be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three,
But will you, till I call him back, take care of him for Me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you, and shall his stay be brief
You'll have his lovely memories as solace for your grief.

"I cannot promise he will stay, since all from earth return,
But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn.
I've looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes I have selected you.
Now will you give him all your love, nor think the labor vain,
Nor hate me when I come to call to take him back again?"

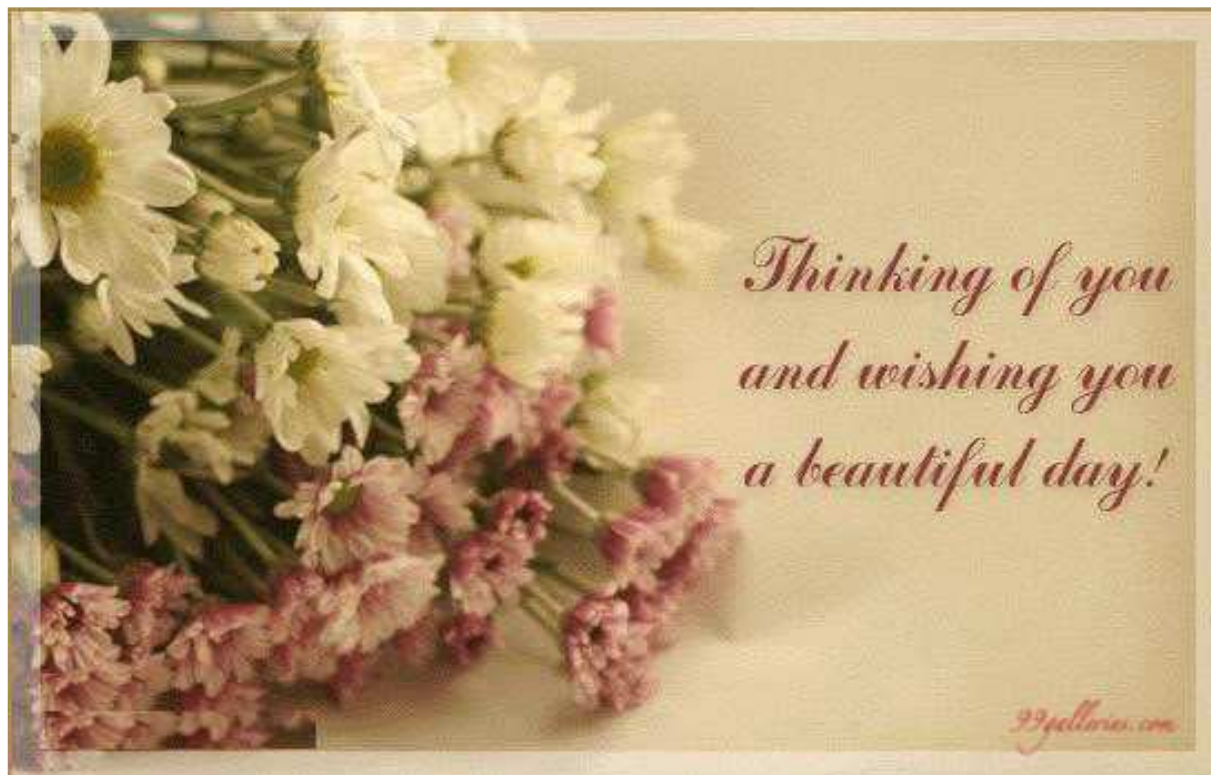

I fancied that I heard them say, "Dear Lord, Thy will be done."

For all the joy Thy child shall bring, the risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may
And for the happiness we've known forever grateful stay;
But shall the angels call for him much sooner than we've planned,
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand."

Dearest Mommy

When you wonder the meaning of life and love
know that I am with you,
close your eyes and feel me kissing you in the gentle breeze across your cheek.

When you begin to doubt that you shall ever see me,
quiet your mind and hear me,

I am in the wisper of the heavens speaking of your love.

When you lose your identity when you question who you are and where you are going, open your heart and see me.

I am the twinkle in the stars smiling down upon you,
lighting the path for your journey.

When you awaken each morning not remembering your dreams
but feeling content and serene know that I was with you filling your night with thoughts of me.

When you linger in the remnant of pain wholeness seeming so unfamiliar think of me and know that I am with you, touching you through the shared tears of a gentle friend easing the pain

as the sunrise illuminates the desert sky in the breathtaking glory, awaken your spirit think of our time, all to brief, but ever brilliant.

When you were certain of us, together

when you were certain of your destiny

I am with you always.

Hugs From Heaven

When you feel a gentle breeze
Caress you when you sigh
It's a hug sent from Heaven
From a loved one way up high.

If a soft and tender raindrop
Lands upon your nose
They've added a small kiss
As fragile as a rose.

If a song you hear fills you
With a feeling of sweet love
It's a hug sent from Heaven
From someone special up above.

If you awaken in the morning
To a bluebird's chirping song
It's music sent from Heaven
To cheer you all day long.

If tiny little snowflakes
Land upon your face
It's a hug sent from Heaven
Trimmed with Angel lace.

So keep the joy in your heart
If you're lonely my dear friend
Hugs that are sent from Heaven
A broken heart will mend.

April 1, 2009

Thank you for visiting Chance's website. I am so very sorry for your loss of Justin. As a mother, who also lost a son in the last year, I know your pain, and my heart truly goes out to you. I know you will have very difficult times ahead. All of us here on LastMemories are here to support each other. I have found more understanding of what I am going through from all the other parents and it has been a life saver for me. You will be in my prayers everyday as are all our beautiful angels. ## When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me

And I'm not there to see

If the sun should rise and find your eyes

All filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry

The way you did today

While thinking of the many things

We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,

As much as I love you

And each time that you think of me

I know you'll miss me too.

But when tomorrow starts without me

Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand.

And said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love

But when I walked through heaven's gates
I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne

He said "This is eternity
And all I've promised you
Today for life on earth is past
But here it starts anew

I promise no tomorrow

For today will always last

And since each day's the same

There's no longing for the past"

So when tomorrow starts without me

Don't think we're far apart

For every time you think of me

I'm right here in your heart.

Tender Mercies

March 27, 2009

For some things there are no shortcuts, no easy remedies when life throws you a curve ball and brings you to your knees. Sometimes it seems you can't win however hard you try when your faith is sorely tested and all you do is cry. It does no good to gripe, complain, when you're not up to par because true friends will understand and love us as we are. We sometimes need a helping hand before we see the light, and just knowing prayers are answered will help us through the night. We're not alone in time like these unless we choose to be, for God won't leave us comfortless in times of tragedy. There are angels all around us to catch us when we fall, and through His tender mercies we can rise above it all. Clay Harrison (Author)

Ma'am,

I found your son's site through another site. I wanted to tell you how sorry I am for your loss. To lose a child is unexplainable...the feelings that don't seem to mend themselves. A tear that can't be sown back together!! I am the same age as your handsome son, and a person so young should be here. Enjoying their children and their families. We are not sure why God takes those that are young, but his plan is so much bigger than ours. My daughter was 17 months old when she passed away and became my heavenly daughter. I know God needed her more than he thought I did!! Your son is smiling down on you and his beautiful children, knowing that through them he still lives. To have a part of him that is still here!! Until we see our angels again, our memories will keep them so close to us....I am so sorry for your loss and your in my thoughts....

In God's love,

Stacy~~Angel Bethanie's mommie

Teresa,

We offer you our most sincere sympathy at the loss of your son. You & I were close friends as kids growing up but LIFE took us down different paths - geographically and distance and the busy-ness of life and families, jobs, etc. have separated us for a number of years. But my heart truly goes out to you. Our son is only a couple years older than Justin was and he and his wife have given us three precious grandchildren (Isabella age 5, and twins, Garrett & Ethan, age 2 1/2). So I can only imagine how you and Justin's wife and children must feel. I pray God's grace and comfort will strengthen each of you through this difficult time.

I've enjoyed viewing the photos and reading about Justin's life. Thanks for sharing.

Love and Blessings,

Jack & Teresa (Ezell) Peveler

Mom

Justin-you are on my mind today as always-the first thing I think of when my eyes open and the last thing I think of at night. It still does not seem real most days-still waiting for the phone to ring and it to be you saying "Whaz up Mom"! Today I am thinking of all the little milestones when you were a baby-first tooth at 4 months & 2 days and the 2nd one followed just a few days later, how you rolled everywhere instead of crawling till about a week before you walked at nine months old. A mother's heart never forgets-where did all that time go????????? Love you so much!

Mom

Remembering today many birthdays with you. At 8:54 a.m. 31 years ago today my life was changed forever. I looked into the dark brown beautiful eyes that taught me what it was to feel the kind of love I had never felt before. Love so deep I would give my own life for it. You are my firstborn and no matter how old you got you will always be my baby! Love you for ever more, keep my seat warm, I will be there in the blink of an eye.

Mom

I sit here tonight remembering you, my heart aches-I can feel it to the depths of my soul. I have so many good memories of you and I am trying very hard to bring those to my mind tonight-two years ago this very time is the last time physically I touched you. I love you Justin, death can never take that away from me. Thanks for all the beautiful memories of you!

Julie Draper

When you were 2 or 3 years of age I was blessed to work at the daycare that you went to. I want your children to know that you were the cutest little boy with big brown eyes and dark hair. You did not like to nap because you wanted to continue playing and would not go to sleep unless I sat down beside you and rubbed your back. I will never forget you and I hope someone in Heaven is rubbing your back so you can get some sleep.

Mom

Thank you Justin for making me a Mom for the first time. I remember vividly looking into your big brown eyes thinking my heart would surely explode with love, never had I felt a love like the love I feel for you. I loved watching you sleep when you were little thinking how very blessed I was that God had entrusted such a beautiful little boy to me. Through the years we went through many things but never one time did I ever question our love for one another. Even in the deepest of valley's I knew and I know you knew that our love was beyond measure. I know now that you are happy and finally free-Praise the Lord Justin-finally free! Have a beautiful day today in your Father's House-see you in the blink of an eye-till then know I will ALWAYS Love You!!!!

Robi

I too remember that trip to Kentucky, we had recently learned that I was pregnant with Austin when you left for boot camp and I couldn't wait for you to see my growing belly and to tell you we were having a son. I also remember teasing you and telling you we were having twins!! The look on your face was priceless!

I also remember how proud of you I was that you made it thru boot camp and how well you had done. And I remember how we both cried like babies when Sunday came and we had to leave you and come back home. It was so hard being away from you....it still is...but like always you are in my heart and I think of you everyday.

Mom

Justin I remember when you were in boot camp in Kentucky. We got to come for the 1st visit right around Easter time. I remember so well everytime we talked leading up to our visit how you would drill me about the kind of Easter candy you "Needed". You would even do the same thing with Robi who came with us so

I wouldn't forget anything! I remember even as a young adult you would walk right down the middle of the mall at Easter time with bunny ears on just to see the reaction of the other people-I so miss your antics, even the pestering me!

Meg

Justin--

This year, the family came up to our house for Christmas. We all sat around, played games, and ate. When everyone was about to leave, Jaycie came up to me and said "I'm a big girl, Egg." I couldn't stop smiling, that is exactly what you used to call me all the time growing up. I know that you are living in her heart and we all got a good laugh out of it. Thanks Justin. Even though your not here in the flesh, we all know you are with us. I love you and miss you...

Meg :)

Mom

Tonight as we lit your candle our family sat together and looked back at all the pictures of us all throughout the years. The memories fill up my heart. You are such a part of who we are as a family and that dear Justin will never change. Your physical being may not be here but your spirit lives on. My initial intention was to look through pictures of just you, but as I started to pour through them I realized that it is not just you but us as a family and who we were together. We miss you so much, our lives are forever changed. We now have a very huge hole in our heart but take comfort in knowing you are but a heartbeat away. Loving you yesterday, today and forever Justin Bradley Lindley!!

Robi

Justin - I have many memories with you so it's hard for me to pick just one, but I remember the summer of 1998 when we both had our wisdom teeth pulled and took care of each other afterwards. You had yours done first and when it came time for me to get mine done you went to my mom to let her know all the things I would need to survive the following days, which mainly included cases of snack pack pudding. LOL I remember how sweet and caring you were and how you stayed by my side day and night the those next few days. I thank God for putting you in my life and for blessing us with an AWESOME son, looking at him everyday makes it a little bit easier to deal with you being gone because he is just a mini version of you and that brings a smile to my face everyday. I love you Justin!

Jill

I remember when you were in Illinois and mom had bought a Bible she was going to send to you (It was a pretty fancy one) and how I got the honor of being the organizer of the pens, notepad, bookmark, etc. that went with it. After you got the Bible we had sent, you wrote me a letter. I still have the letter its on my bulletin board in my room. Justin thank you for the small things like the letter and the encouragements written inside.

Uncle Rusty

Justin,

I miss you... always think about you. Seems like everytime our family gets together your name always comes up in conversation. Usually, it's always about something funny that you've done or said...

Lord, I thank you for all your blessings. I thank you for all the time that you gave to us to spend with Justin. Lord, I thank you for your plan of salvation that you gave us so that we could spend eternity with our familys in Heaven. I thank you that one day I will see Justin again...

Lord, I pray that you bless Justin's children... Lord, kept your hand on thier lives. Be with them always lead and guide thier every step..

Lord, I ask that you comfort Teresa, give her peace in knowing that Justin is in a much better place, a place that you have prepared for us...

Amen

Kristin

Justin,

I just wanted to say thank you for all the good memories you have left us with. We were eating lunch the other day and we starting quoting different movies. My mind immediately went to you. If I listen hard enough I can still hear you laughing trying to get through the many lines you had memorized. I'm sorry I can't be there tonight, but please know that I will never forget you! I love you very much!!

Meg

Justin--

My dad told a story about you this past weekend and I thought I'd share it... Dad decided to fix "fireman food" for dinner one night. I asked him why we all called it fireman food when it was just a big casserole dinner. He said that when you were younger you would not eat it one night when you were over his house so he told you it was food that all the fireman ate. That was enough to convince you to try it and from then on you would eat the infamous "fireman food." Funny how traditions start... So because of you, we had the yummy fireman food for dinner :) I miss and love you so much!!!

Son

When you were in the hospital you told me when you toot you walk faster.

Son

Dad.I remember when you broke your back you told me to get on your back.I asked you what the doc said and you said you couldn't pick up over 40 lbs.And I said I weighed 52 lbs.You said "I'm not going to listen to him!!!

The Twin's & Micheal's Mommy( Scatto )

Mom

Well Justin this week little Jaycie has battled the croup. Made me think about the time when you were 2 years old that we spent a couple of days in the hospital under a croup tent, me in it with you because that is the only way you would stay. I remember as you felt better you wandered into the restroom and pushed the nurse panic call button, everyone came running. I have to say I was a bit surprised since I didn't know you had managed to do that. Everyone had a good laugh!!

Mom

Today Justin I am remembering many Easters with you. The earliest one I remember you were about 20 months old, it was raining and we did our egg hunt inside at grandmother's house on Candlewood. Of course the eggs were more of a ball to throw for you. When you picked it up to find that it had cracked and was broken, you came to me with tears running down your cheeks saying "fik it, fik it". Momma's should be able to fix it all, but that was the first of many hard lessons that not everything could be fixed. Even as an adult, you always had an Easter basket, bag or even a six pack cooler full of your favorite candies. Today I know you are beholding the real reason we have Easter and I know our celebrations pale in comparison! Hope today my dear son you are having a wonderful 1st Easter in heaven sitting at the feet of Jesus!

The Twin's & Micheal's Mommy( Scatto )

GOOD NIGHT JUSTIN, MY PRAYERS ARE WITH YOU...

Mom to Angel Melissa Platt

Hi Beautiful Angel Justin, I was thinking of you and your family today, God Bless you all.

The Twin's & Micheal's Mommy( Scatto )

Hello Justin, I just wanted to say that I don't have any memories of you..I just met your Wonderful Mother on Your Beautiful Web page that you Mom has created for you..But, Iam starting to make some memories of you by Visiting your page every day, if not every other day...Justin, you are so loved and missed down here on earth..I'm sending you a Beautiful rose today in memory of Your Wonderful life...May you Rest in Peace Justin.....

Tyler

Justin I remember the first techno song you ever introduced me to, ever since then I have been a fan. I like all kinds of music and thats something we both shared, our love for music. When asked " Justin if you could watch a movie with no sound or not see the picture and just listen to the music," you said " Tyler I would probably go to listen to a movie instead of going to watch a movie." I just busted out laughing. I can remember driving to Hastings in Jacksonville just to look for cheap cd's that we might could afford, we were so broke. Forced into oddball jobs trying to get just a little spending money. Justin I promise I will get on and let everyone know the great times we had as brothers, as friends, and as companions in all our hardships. I love you Justin with all my heart and from the depths of my heart I can't wait to see your face and hear your laugh again.

Mom

I remember when you had to do your army training crawling on your belly under bobwire with guns going off over your head, going into a building where there was tear gas and having to take off your mask. You were one tough cookie-dude! You told me when you finally got to have a shower there was dirt in places you didn't even know you had!!

Mom

Justin-remember the time I sent you a box of goodies to boot camp complete with homemade cookies. Your commanding officer had you come to the office and began to eat the cookies in front of you. Asked you how bad you wanted some, you got them but had to do push-ups for each one you ate. You later told me it was worth every push-up. 😊

Mom

I remember talking to you right after you left for boot camp in Ft. Knox, Kentucky. It was bitter cold in January and you were sick, running a fever etc. You cried on the phone, nearly broke my heart that I couldn't just come scoop you up and bring you home. But I remember how proud you were when you finished-looked pretty buff too as I remember!!

Mom

I remember that even as an adult you expected a Valentine sack of goodies-don't forget the Reese's cups Mom!!

Mom

I remember riding in the car one time and you were obviously telling me the biggest fib about something you did. I asked you "would you say the same thing if Jesus were sitting here?". You and your quick wit said "of course not, I would ask him if he did it". You could weave a very convincing story Justin, might even have had Jesus wondering!

stacey

justin i just remember all the times we rode around and just drove the roads. we would have so much fun listenin to all kinds of music and just doin what we do. we'd usually come to your moms just so you could aggravate her and she'd just laugh and tell us to get outta there. you could always make me and your momma laugh...we were your biggest fan....you were so funny. i love you with all my heart and the love i have for you can never be replaced you can never be replaced and you will never ever be forgotten. the hole in my heart wont be filled till i see you again. i know your up there kickin it and im down here holdin in down for you baby. jaycie and i send our kisses. i love you baby rest easy

Mom

Justin I remember 28 glorious Christmas times with you. I remember the fact you were busy thinking of what you wanted for the next birthday or Christmas as soon as the presents were opened. I remember your excitement that never went away even as an adult! Your laugh and the sparkle in your eyes I will never forget. Your candle will always burn on our holidays to remember you. Your earthly body may be gone but your name, your face and your memories will live on! I love you Justin with all my heart and soul!

Mom

Justin I remember when you played soccer. You had to have solid white shoes when the rest of the kids wore black. The very first game it rained. You stood in the middle of the largest puddle in the field and stomped the entire game, raising your hands like "Mom I can't help it". Needless to say the white shoes were never white again.

Jill

Justin I remember every time you said a "bad word" and Mom would tell you to watch your mouth. You would pucker your lips out, cross your eyes -to WATCH your mouth, and then say it again!!

Mom

Justin had fireman boots he wore all the time. In fact he wore them till they split down the back. If I persuaded him to take them off to go to bed he had to have them sit right beside the bed in case he had a call in the middle of the night. He also wore a fireman hat with the chin strap inside the hat under his nose because it wasn't long enough to reach his chin.

Mom

I remember a time when you chickened out on a ride at Silver Dollar City. There was other family at the entrance to the ride so I sent you back. Well they had moved and when we got off the ride you had stayed right there but had this huge story about how you were nearly kidnapped and you tried to give a man some candy to take you-sort of got the scenario backwards-quite the storyteller at times!

Mom

Justin, you took longer to get ready than a girl, most of the time because you waited until you were supposed to be somewhere to start getting ready. You obsessed over every hair being in place, smelling good and having everything coordinate.

Mom

You rolled everywhere you wanted to go, crawled for one week then walked at 9 months and never stopped after that.

Grandmother

I remember the the time you asked me to buy more Tang, when I told you I didn't have any. Seems you had been drinking the Metamucil!

Mom

Justin I remember when you got seriously into hair removal, arms, legs, chest, back and even toes and fingers. We bought the cream by the gallon!

Mom

I remember when your goal was to be a garbage man when you grew up. You thought they were the coolest.

Mom

I remember looking into your big brown eyes as a newborn and thinking how could I feel so much love for any one human being. You were a precious baby!

Mom

Justin I remember last Christmas when you and Tyler teamed up opening the only presents I got you that you didn't already know what it was. Each of you, as usual blamed the other one when I noticed what you had done.

Mom

I remember when Justin was about Jaycie's age, he was bouncing in his baby bed. Actually he was having a little fit and bouncing. We heard a thud, ran to check on him and he had bounced himself right out of the bed landing on his feet. Shocked him and scared us.

Mom

I remember when you and Granddad secretly were dipping your Hershey bars in the peanut butter like on the commercials.

Kristin

In October 2007, my step-sister Kara hosted a baby shower for me. Being that it was in Jacksonville, Aunt Teresa, Justin, Austin and baby Jaycie were able to make it. You could see in his eyes he was a proud daddy. At the shower he told me about the day him and Stacey decided to wash all Jaycie's clothes before she was born. They took everything off the hangers and threw it in the washing machine. When everything came out of the dryer, he couldn't remember what pieces went together to make outfits! I definitely took that advice to heart when I washed Haley's clothes.

Justin I love you and miss you very much! Sorry I couldn't make it tonight, but there will be a candle burning for you in Brookland, Arkansas!

Jill

I remember you always saying you were on a diet as you walked in with a cheeseburger, chips and a slim-fast to wash it down! 😊

Mom

When Justin was about 2 years old he was playing with our toy poodle Pierre. I heard quite a commotion from the dog and laughter from Justin. Went to check on them and found Justin with his pants down chasing the dog to wet on him. Funny thing was the dog would wait on him to get close then take off barking, he enjoyed the game as much as Justin.

Jill

I remember no-bake cookies when you would babysit even late at night.

Mom

When I smell sun-ripened raspberry lotion I think of you.

Jill

I remember "Justin movies" ...Billy Madison, Joe Dirt, Napoleon Dynamite and the list goes on.

Jill

Justin, I remember the time you taught Tyler to rave dance in the den and he just looked at you and said so I act like I am going down a basketball court, wave my hands around and not really go anywhere?

Grandmother

I remember how sad you were when you lost your lucky rabbit's foot in a dressing room. You cried and cried and wanted us to go back to find it.

Mom

When Justin lost his first tooth biting on a tupperware sippy cup, I had to convince him he would get another tooth before I could finish pulling it. I had always told him if he didn't brush his teeth would fall out and he was quite sure it was happening. But he was excited the next morning when the toothfairy really did leave money. In fact, he was ready to pull all of his teeth. Didn't take Justin long to figure out how to scam the toothfairy. He would leave a note saying his mother wanted to keep the tooth, then he would proceed to take the tooth to his grandmother's house and his Dad's house for yet another visit from the toothfairy.

Jill

I remember red hair, green hair, the sumo wrestler haircut. I also remember sagging pants and the skater look. You always changed looks like the weather in those days. 😊

Mom

Justin I remember when you stuck a button up your nose and went to Grandmother saying button, button-where is the button? Button come out of my nose!

Grandmother

I remember when you pretended you were superman, you asked me if I wanted you to go pick up the truck off the mailbox. Seems the cable man had hit the mailbox and there really was a truck on it.

Uncle Rusty

Justin,

I will always remember the time that I bought you a fire truck that you could pedal around the house. I lettered it up just like the one that I was assigned to at the J'boro Fire Department. We kept it in the den on Candlewood, you would come over and play fireman... I think the funniest thing I remember about all your fireman stuff was the helmet that you wore around the house, the strap that was suppose to tighten on your head always ended up under your nose like a chin strap...

Uncle Rusty

Justin,

I remember when you were at Fort Knox. Your Mom and I flew up to Louisville KY to see you graduate from Basic Training. I was so proud of you, heck I could tell you were proud of yourself ! I remember how you lined up at the door of the Mess Hall with your ID in your left hand so that the guy could see it as you marched in to eat. I also remember kidding you about sitting at the front table, you were afraid I would sit down at the officers table and get you in trouble. All the time I knew what I was doing but you were so scared I would sit down with the brass !!

Cindy and Dave

Justin, We remember when you were a young kiddo and would stay at our house You would pretend to be a D.J. on the radio. Dave would call you Justininio Hall, and you got a big kick out of it. You also had a keen interest in Dave's scuba diving gear and loved putting on the equipment and breathing off the tank! You always had so much energy and were interested in so many things. Dave would take you on outings, so you would have special guy time with out all the "babies around". You were so excited by the mall! Your are missed!

Donna Carlin

Justin-

I remember a time when you were in Illinois. You were the food manager and one of the meals called for garlic and sweet potatoes. The problem was we didn't have any sweet potatoes, and all the garlic had been used in another meal. You went to Bridge in a panic and asked her what to do. She said, "You already know what to do...go to your Heavenly Father and ask him to send it in." And you left and went to pray and ask Him. 30 minutes later a lady showed up with a big box of nothing but fresh sweet potatoes and fresh garlic. She dropped it off and left. None of us had ever seen her before, and to this day we do not know who she was. Thank you for praying ... your faith, and ours was built up that day!

Donna

Mom

As the first Thanksgiving is about to happen without you, my heart aches for you. It will not be the same without seeing you pile your plate high with ham, macaroni and cheese (not touching any vegetables of course). Seeing you devour peanut butter pie-always wanted me to make one that was yours only-Ha! I miss you more than any words can express Justin. I am truly thankful for you and all the joy you brought into my life!

Shannon, Kristin & Haley

Justin-

I have no idea where to start. When I think about you I think of all of your jokes. Your laugh was so contagious! No one could ever stay mad or upset around you. I remember when you went to high school at Valley View. Meg and I got out earlier than you did so we waited in the car for you everyday. You always took SOO long. You just had to socialize! When we both found out we were having baby girls we said that Austin, Jaycie and Haley needed to grow up together just like the five of us did. We were all up to something when the holidays came around! Justin we all miss you and love you very much. The holidays won't be the same without you. Though we can't see you, I'll know you will be there watching over all of us!

Love you...

Shannon, Kristin & Haley

Uncle Rusty

Justin,

I miss you my friend, always will remember you. I remember letting you fly the flight simulator here at the house on Candlewood. You always liked crashing the plane into the ground and getting to start all over again. Reminds me of the first time that you and I went for a flight in my real airplane, I remember after we got back on the ground.. "You didn't wanna nose the palne into the ground"... You told me "Hey I didn't wanna touch anything !!" You were not so brave when it came to the real thing. I looked in my logbbok, that was April 24th, 1995.

I'll miss you this year at Thanksgiving & Christmas, always kidding around, quoting lines from funny movies, and most of all watching you eat all the peanut butter pie !!

I miss you my brother.... Uncle Rusty

Meg

Justin -

The things that stick out in my mind are when you would run up and down the stairs during the holidays and call me "egg" instead of Meg, even when you knew I hated it. I think you just loved aggravating me! Or when I would miss your call and you would leave me voicemails that would tell me how everything you had to tell me, big or small, was SO very important. I miss your laugh and your jokes. You always knew how to make everyone you were around smile. Everytime I think of you, you still make me smile. 😊 Love you...

Meg

Mom

I remember when you were six years old, we were at a mexican restaurant going through the drive- thru. Just so happened you were in the seat next to the window. As I was getting out my money to pay for the food, I hear the lady at the window gasp. I look up and you have a plastic gun pointed at her trying to pull off a hold-up. I do believe you scared the poor lady to death and I had to do some quick explaining to get us out of this one. Never a dull moment with you-Justin.

Mom

Justin-You were the world's youngest expert on GI Joe men-knew every one, when they were issued, what series ,etc. Even got paid at Target one time to help a lady pick some out for her child!
